DETAILED ACTION

1. The examiner considers the preliminary amendment filled on 11/18/99 and 01/14/03.

Examiner's statement for reason for allowance

The following is an examiner's statement for allowance:

2. Claims 1-3, 6, 8-12, 15-18 and 20 have been allowed.

As per claim 1, the prior art, Paik et al. (U.S. PN: 5,233,629) of record disclose an apparatus and method for encoding data for use in the digital communication systems (see col. 4, lines 48-50) comprising a binary convolutional encoder (see figure 2 element 48 and col. 4, lines 50-56) employs a rate 1/2, 64-state convoutional code, in which generators are 171 and 133 in octal. However, the prior art taken singly or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest, or render obvious processing data using one of the 64-state, rate 1/2 binary convolutional code (BCC) based on octal generators 133, 175 or a 256-state, rate 2/3 BCC based on octal generators to provide binary convolutional coded codewords. Consequently, claim 1 is allowed over the prior art.

Claims 2, 3, 6, 15-17, which are directly or indirectly dependents of claim 1 are also allowable over the prior art of record.

As per claim 18, the prior art, Paik et al. (U.S. PN: 5,233,629) of record disclose an apparatus and method for encoding data for use in the digital communication systems (see col. 4, lines 48-50) comprising a binary convolutional encoder (see figure 2 element 48 and col. 4, lines 50-56) employs a rate 1/2, 64-state convoutional code, in which generators are 171 and 133 in octal. However, the prior art taken singly or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest, or render obvious processing data using one of the 64-state, rate 1/2 binary convolutional code

(BCC) based on octal generators 133, 175 or a 256-state, rate 2/3 BCC based on octal generators to provide binary convolutional coded codewords. Consequently, claim 1 is allowed over the prior art.

Claims 8-12 and 20, which are directly or indirectly dependents of claim 18 are also allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
